

What are the top 10 genres with the most artists?

Classical music is the most dominant genre of them all with 66 artists.

Despite Latin music's popularity, it has almost half the number of artists of the classical genre.

What is the highest number of sales in each country?

From the Map Plot, we can see that North America is the most dominant market with just over 800$.

While Brazil and France have almost the same number of sales of 190$ and 195$ respectively.

Which genre has the most purchases?

The most dominant Genre by sales is the Rock Genre with 835 purchases, which also had the second-highest number of artists (from the first graph).

What is interesting is that the Classical Genre produced only 41 purchases, despite having the highest number of artists (from the first graph).

Which Track is the most purchased?

The top purchased Track with 6 purchases is The Trooper, which is in the Heavy Metal Genre.

However, This is a limited 25 rows of data, but we can significantly see that the Heavy Metal and Rock Genre are dominating.